WORLD DAY OF MIGRANTS AND REFUGEES

Sunday 25th September

Prayer for Migrants, Refugees and Asylum Seekers

God, no one is a stranger to you.

And no one is ever far from your loving care.

In your kindness watch over migrants, refugees and asylum seekers, those separated from their loved ones, those who are lost and those who have been exiled from their homes.

Bring them safely to the place where they long to be, and help us always to show your kindness to strangers and those in need. We ask this through Christ our Lord, who too was a refugee & migrant, who travelled to another land searching for a home. Amen.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION PREPARATION

Can you help?

We are currently putting a team together to help with preparation for First Communion, which includes teaching the children the practicalities of attending Mass, when to stand, when to sit, when to kneel, how to genuflect, how to position their hands to receive Communion. This is a new development, and we will learn as we go. If the need is identified by other schools, it is likely that the effort will be extended to those school areas also. If you would be interested in joining this team, please contact St. Senan's Parish Office on 053 9261729 or St. Aidan's Parish Office 053 9235777.

THE HOOK OF FAITH

The Gospel for the Twenty-Sixth Sunday of Ordinary Time is the parable told by Jesus about the rich man and Lazarus. It is appropriate for the 'World Day of Migrants and Refugees' which falls this Sunday. A challenging reflection by Pope Francis is offered for this occasion which highlights the plight of millions of displaced people. We feature an article on how the late Queen Elizabeth was a witness to her deep Christian faith followed by articles on St. Vincent de Paul and St. Therese of Lisieux, one of the patron saints of 'The Hook of Faith'. We have light and wisdom by Lorcan Brennan and finally, Fr. Chris Hayden sheds some light on recent NCCA documents that touch on the sexual education of our children

Check out these and other resources available at www.thehookoffaith.com
